

Spring Fling June 8, 2019

De La Veaga Park
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Speaker Danny T.
(50 years sober) Los Angeles, CA

EVENT SCHEDULE

Meditation Meeting 10:00AM
Area 52 11:00AM
BBQ Open 11:30AM
Speaker Meeting 1:00PM
Sasha's Money 2:00PM
Baked Goods Auction 2:00PM
50/50 Raffle (following auction)
Closing 3:55PM

MENU

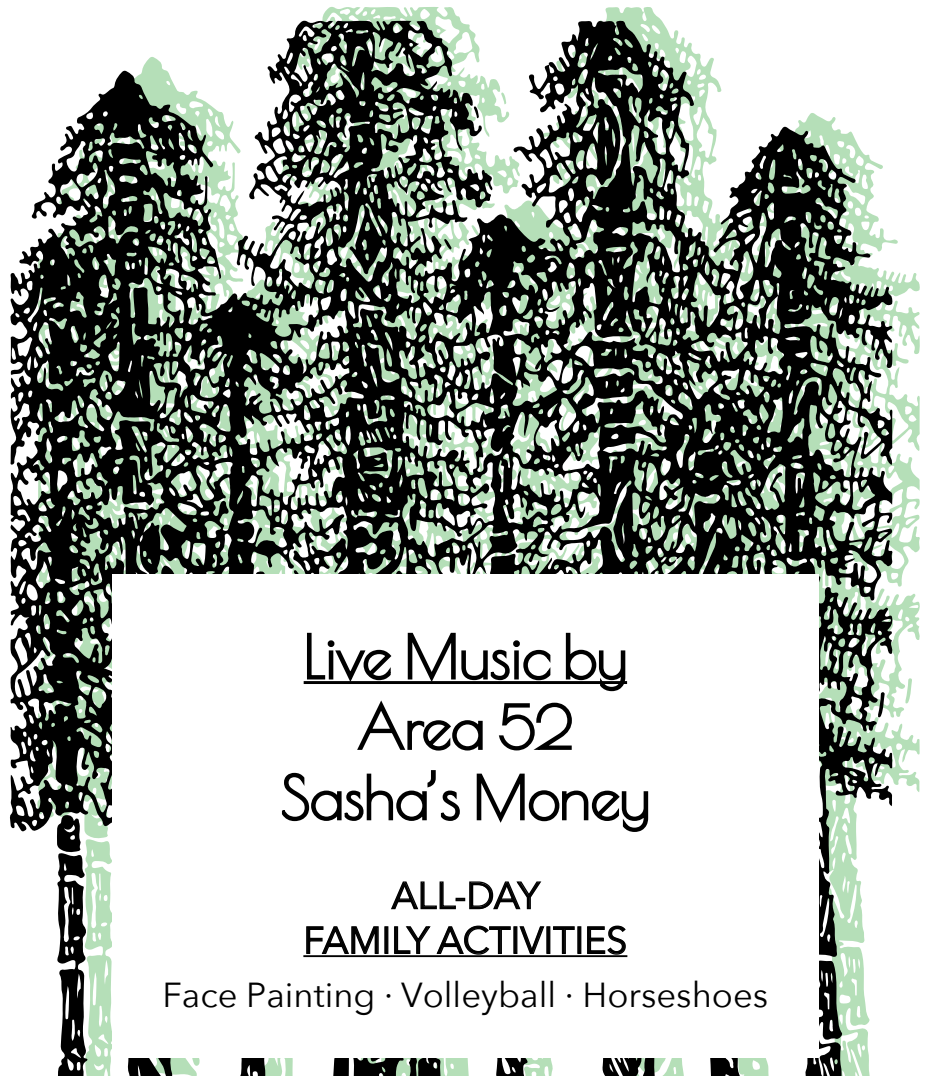

BBQ Chicken · Green Salad
Potato Salad · Garlic Bread
Baked Beans · Watermelon

Lunch $10 per person
Sides only $6 per person

De La Veaga Park

850 Branciforte Drive, Santa Cruz
Parking is limited please carpool

Hosted by Santa Cruz Area Activities Committee

Live Music by
Area 52
Sasha's Money

ALL-DAY
FAMILY ACTIVITIES

Face Painting · Volleyball · Horseshoes

Redwoods thrive in thick groves, where their roots intertwine and even fuse together, providing tremendous strength against the forces of nature. Redwoods do not survive alone...ever. They form "tribes" or communities. Sometimes they grow so close to each other, they merge at the base becoming one tree. They provide each other strength and support: intertwining roots - living in an embrace of others.